Tender reference number: UE4T_OT_008

Date of publication: 8 July 2026

Deadline for the submission of proposals: 8 August 2026, midnight (CET)

1. CONTEXT & PURPOSE

TRIAL International is a non-governmental organization fighting impunity for international crimes and supporting victims in their quest for justice.

In support of its activities, the organisation is looking for a consultant to coordinate, research and draft the 2027 edition of the Universal Jurisdiction Annual Review (UJAR). Since 2015, in collaboration with several partner organizations, TRIAL International annually publishes the Universal Jurisdiction Annual Review (UJAR), a unique compilation of extraterritorial, including universal, jurisdiction cases around the world. The UJAR has become a reference document in this field and an essential tool to better understand the potential of universal jurisdiction in the fight against impunity.

2. SCOPE OF SERVICES

- Research 2026 developments in extraterritorial, including universal, jurisdiction cases around the world;
- Draft the 2027 edition of the Universal Jurisdiction Annual Review (UJAR);
- Coordinate throughout the project the work of TRIAL International and its partners.

For further details, please see the attached terms of reference.

3. TIMELINE

- Deadline for the submissions of tenders: 8 August 2026, midnight (CET)
- Selection of the consultant(s): 21 August 2026 at the latest
- Signature of the contract: 28 August 2026 at the latest
- Intended start date: 1 September 2026
- Deadline to submit the final document: 30 January 2027

4. ELIGIBILITY

Participation in tendering is open to all qualified bidders, on equal terms to natural and legal persons, regardless of nationality or location. However, all bidders must meet the following criteria:

- Have the professional and technical capacity needed to effectively provide the required services (at least 6 years of relevant experience, of which at least 4 in the international criminal justice sector; extensive knowledge of extraterritorial and universal jurisdiction cases and legal frameworks; experience in researching substantive and procedural aspects of international and national criminal law; experience in report writing with prior publication experience);

- Full proficiency in English, including excellent English writing skills;
- Provide proof of registration as a company or as an individual contractor;
- Submit a signed declaration confirming that they are not in any of the situations listed in Article 136(1) of the EU Financial Regulation (such as bankruptcy, grave professional misconduct, fraud, corruption, etc.) (see “Tender Declaration form” attached).

5. SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

No more than one tender can be submitted by a natural or legal person. In the event that a natural or legal person submits more than one tender, all tenders in which that person has participated will be excluded. Subcontracting is not allowed.
